1. Participation

1.1. Entry Qualification

The basic qualification is that you are a student up to graduate level who lives in the United States of America or a Kibo-ABC member country/region*¹ who expresses interest in participating in the Kibo-RPC *². In some circumstances, foreign students and non-citizens may also take part. Special cases may be approved based on permission from the Kibo-RPC Point Of Contact (POC) in the participating country/region. Please communicate with your county's/region's POC if you wish to be considered as a special case.

Some examples of special cases;

1: Non-students may be eligible to compete if they are not professional programmers.

2: Students who study abroad can form a team representing their home country with foreign students.

Australia, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Nepal, New Zealand, Philippines, Rep. of Korea, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, United Arab Emirates, Vietnam.

Kibo-ABC URL: http://iss.jaxa.jp/en/kuoa/kibo_abc/

*² Countries/regions participating in the 3rd Kibo-RPC (as of February 2022):

Australia, Bangladesh, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Nepal, New Zealand, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, the United States of America, Vietnam.

JAXA is now coordinating the participation of other countries/regions.

To respond to the requests from non-Kibo-RPC member students, JAXA establishes a new team classification to allow them to participate with a condition. Teams from outside the Kibo-ABC member countries/regions are able to participate in this competition by forming a multinational joint team, Worldwide Team, through the Kibo-RPC Secretariat by contacting participating teams within the Kibo-RPC member countries/regions. The competition contributes to SDGs, provides more opportunities to students worldwide, and opens internationally.

See section 1.2 for details on team types and section 1.4(3) for information on how to form a joint team.

1.2. Types of participating teams

There will be two types of teams in this competition

- Kibo-ABC Team
A team consisting of participants who are nationals of a country/region participating in the 3rd Kibo-RPC or belong to schools in that region.
- Worldwide Team
A Worldwide team is a team of participants who are not from a 3rd Kibo-RPC participating country/region or who do not belong to a school in that country/region, but are integrated with a Kibo-ABC Team. Please note, only teams that are integrated through the Kibo-RPC Secretariat will be recognized as Worldwide Teams.

The team classification of participants is shown in Table 1.2.

Table 1.2 Team Classification

Team Classification		Nationality of participants	Location of their school	Remarks
Kibo-ABC Team	Case 1	Kibo-RPC participating country/region	Kibo-RPC participating country/region
	Case 2	Kibo-RPC participating country/region	Kibo-RPC non-participating country/region
	Case 3	Kibo-RPC non-participating country/region	Kibo-RPC participating country/region
Worldwide Team		Kibo-RPC non-participating country/region	Kibo-RPC non-participating country/region	Section 1.4.(3)
		The team will become a Worldwide Team by integrating with a Kibo-ABC Team through the Kibo-RPC secretariat.

1.3. Types of Preliminary Round

There will be two types of Preliminary Rounds in this competition. Only teams that win

Either National or Bonus of these Preliminary Rounds will advance to the Final Round on orbit.

- National Preliminary Round

These are preliminary rounds that are held in each country/region and are open to all teams. Each team participates in the national preliminary round held in the country/region to which it belongs. Worldwide teams will participate in the national preliminary rounds held in the country/region to which their pre-integrated team belongs.

- Bonus Round

This is a Preliminary Round held after a National Preliminary Round for Worldwide Teams only. Only Worldwide Teams that were eliminated in the National Preliminary Rounds are eligible to participate. The teams that advance to the Final Round will be determined based on their performance in the National Preliminary Rounds.

Kibo-ABC Teams are only eligible to participate in the Preliminary Round held in their respective countries/regions. Worldwide Teams will be eligible to participate in two Preliminary Rounds: a National Preliminary Round and a Bonus Round. This increases the likelihood that the Worldwide team will be able to participate the Final Round. All Kibo-RPC participating countries/regions are encouraged to actively cooperate in the formation of Worldwide teams (see section 1.4.(3)).

1.4. Team Creating Rules

(1) Team Structure

- A team is comprised of 3 or more members.
- Students CANNOT join more than one team.
- Teams cannot add a new member after finishing the Preliminary Round.

(2) Team Representative

- Each team must have a leader who is responsible for team management. A student in a team or guardian can be the representative.
- The team leader has the following responsibilities:
 - ✓ Manage the progress of the team
 - ✓ Register for the application form
 - ✓ Submit your program
 - ✓ Communicate and share information with the POC

(3) How to form a Worldwide Team

Applicants from countries/regions other than Kibo-RPC participating countries/regions who wish to participate must apply to the Kibo-RPC Secretariat as non-Kibo-RPC member according to the following steps.

1) Determine the members of the team

A team must have at least three members from non-Kibo-RPC countries/regions. In the team classifications in Table 1.2, if the members include participants who fall into cases 1 to 3, the team will be considered a Kibo-ABC Team. Please check Table 1.2 for your reference to select members.

2) Application to the secretariat for participation

Follow the application procedures in Section 1.5 and apply from the application URL non-Kibo-RPC participating country/region.

3) Recruitment of a team by the secretariat

Based on the application information, the Kibo-RPC Secretariat will notify each country/region by e-mail that a Worldwide Team has applied and will recruit teams willing to integrate with the team that applied. The team recruitment period will be about two weeks from notification.

4) Accepting entries as a Worldwide Team

If a team accepts an applying team, the Kibo-RPC Secretariat will connect and re-register them as a team from the country/region to which the accepting team belongs.

* As a reminder, if no team accepts the integration, a Worldwide Team will not be formed and will not be able to participate in the competition. Also, teams formed without applying to the Kibo-RPC secretariat will not be considered as a Worldwide Team and will not be allowed to participate in the Bonus Round.

Please make sure to apply to the Kibo-RPC Secretariat.

(4) Other conditions

- The following skills and knowledge are recommended but not mandatory:
 - ✓ Android programming and image processing with Java
 - ✓ College-level knowledge of physics or mathematics
- All teams shall read paragraph 2 especially carefully and place a check mark at the top of the application form before you submit it.

1.5. Application form

- (1) Access the Kibo-RPC Web (<https://jaxa.krpc.jp/>) and fill out and submit the application form from the URL provided for each country/region. While teams are waiting for a notification of acceptance, they can read the Guidebook and prepare to participate in this competition. The items to be entered in the application form are as follows.
 - ✓ Team name
 - ✓ Team representative: name, age, nationality, organization, address, phone number, e-mail address

- ✓ Team members: name, age, nationality, school name, participation in previous competitions
 - ✓ How did you learn about Kibo-RPC?
 - ✓ Confirmation of consent
- (2) After applying, an email will be sent automatically when the reception is completed. It will include an ID and Password to login to the participant's website and instructions to access JAXA's simulation environment.
- (3) If your team qualifies as a Worldwide team as described in section 1.1, please send an e-mail to the Kibo-RPC secretariat with your team name. If you do not notify us, your team may not be considered as a Worldwide team.

Deadline: June 6th, 2022

2. Terms and Conditions

Applicants must agree to all of the terms below. If you live in the EU, please agree to the contents of the attached materials.

2.1. Privacy Policy

- (1) Collected personal information will only be used for the operation of the Kibo-RPC.
- (2) The videos and photos taken at this tournament will be made publicly available.

2.2. Responsibility of Applicant and Exemption Clause of JAXA

- (1) JAXA will not be liable for any problems that may occur during program participation. Applicants need to take full responsibility for solving issues of this nature that may arise.
- (2) Applicants must guarantee that information on the application form and the program code do not violate any legal rights or obligations, such as intellectual property or export control, as applicable. If a legal problem related to the submitted information arises, the applicant will take full responsibility to solve the problem.
- (3) If there is a violation of these matters registration may be canceled, even after registration.

2.3. Notes

- (1) Underage applicants must first obtain parental consent.
- (2) Do not use the simulator environment provided in the Kibo-RPC for any purpose other than the Kibo-RPC. Sign-on information for accessing the simulator environment will be made available only to the competition applicants. Do not disclose this information to anyone else.
- (3) JAXA may use the program codes and results of the competition for the purpose of public relations and education.
